

Ashleigh Dueker

Ashleigh is a Principal Consultant at PA Consulting in the Agile practice, specialising in change and Agile transformation. She helps organisations increase their ability to respond effectively and quickly to change, and grasp opportunities for innovation at the pace they need to succeed. She is a collaborative bridge-builder, facilitating the emergence of ideas with integrity and inclusion. Ashleigh was formerly a PM before joining the Agile community. She also founded the Agility Leadership Network of c.2,000+ leaders across industries, providing members with an opportunity to hear from people who have had successes and failures and share learnings and new ways of managing organisations with a community of peers.
